

Natty Children's Coats!

Our line of Children's Coats, we believe, is the most complete in the state. We carry Children's Coats in the latest popular materials, colors and styles. At $2.98

we specialize a little kersey coat that any child would be proud to wear. It fastens high at the collar and is very neatly trimmed, insuring a very warm, and at the same time, stylish coat at a reasonable price.

The ladies' aid society of the Swedish mission will meet at the home of Gust. Nelson on Trow hill Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock, and all their friends are cordially invited to attend.

The ladies of the Holding Methodist church will serve a lunch supper next Wednesday evening. Supper will be served from 5:30 to 7 o'clock, followed by a social hour in the Epworth league room.

Miss Mamie Beaulac, aged three years, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Beaulac, died at 5:30 o'clock this morning, after a long illness. She is survived by her parents. The funeral arrangements have not yet been made.

M. E. Bassett of Prospect street planted a potato this spring, which was brought from Salda, Col., by Mrs. Catherine McKennie. He planted 24 hills from one potato, and it yielded one and one-half bushels of nice tubers.

C. F. Smith, an auctioneer of twenty years' experience, can sell your real estate, farm stock, merchandise, and, in fact, everything you wish to dispose of at public auction. Satisfaction guaranteed. With the D. A. Perry Real Estate agency, Barre, Vt. Phone 162-1.

At the matinee this afternoon by the Whiteside Strauss company, "My Georgia Rose" will be presented, and someone with the lucky coupon will draw the beautiful dining-room set in Hooker & Co.'s window. The play to-night will be "Oliver Twist," the great character play.

Lawrence Lewis, who has been baggage-master at the C. V. station, has been promoted to billing clerk in the freight office, and William Dewey has taken his place as baggage-master. Robert Cordner finished work yesterday as yard clerk, and his place is filled by Frank Shina.

There will be a recital given by Alice N. Averill at Goddard seminary Tuesday evening, October 4, at 8 o'clock. The program will consist of pieces by Mendelssohn, Saint Saens, Liszt, Chopin and modern Russian composers. No admission is charged, and everyone is cordially invited.

The mission circle of the Universalist church began the new year of work with an autumn picnic Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. R. Allen on vest hill. Several new members were received and a report of the state convention, which was held at Northfield, was given by delegates present.

The Clover club will hold its first meeting of the year with Mrs. M. I. Towne on Tuesday afternoon, October 4. Members are requested to give quotations from Mark Twain, in answer to the roll-call. Teams will leave Page's livery stable promptly at 1:30 p. m. Let everyone be on time.

All the superintendents and workers for the religious census canvass will meet at the Methodist church Monday evening at 7:30. Miss Balch is to address this meeting, so all are requested to come and learn what is to be done by each. Remember the date of this meeting is October 3 and October 4 is canvass day.

Mrs. B. O. Wood, who met with such a serious accident last week Friday, is gaining a little every day. Mrs. Wood was going from the kitchen to the woodshed, when she fell a distance of three feet, breaking her right wrist and cutting her face so badly that it was found necessary to take eight stitches. Besides these wounds, a rusty nail went through the bridge of her nose. Mrs. Wood was 80 years of age last August.

MONTPELIER.

Harold Antoinetti Sent to the State Industrial School.

Harold Antoinetti, the boy who took a team from this city and went toward Barre on a joy ride that ended in a runaway and the smashing of the outfit, was in city court yesterday, and was sentenced to 28 weeks in the reform school at Vergennes. He is but nine years old. Sheriff Tracy will probably take him to the school Monday.

William Boyte, who fell from a staging in the basement of the Union school building two weeks ago, is able to walk a short distance, but his sprained wrist still pains him and his head is severely cut.

A large leak was discovered yesterday in the Colton dam, and men were at work all day trying to fill it with bags of granite chips and stones. A volume of water fully as large as is used to run all the water wheels connected with the dam is going to waste through the leak, which causes considerable apprehension. Unless something can be done to stop the flow of water, manufacturing interests dependent upon it will be closed and extensive alterations will have to be made or the dam replaced.

Miss Peters, the vocal teacher at the seminary, has made up this year's glee club, and the first rehearsal was held Wednesday night. Those who make up the club are Misses C. Evelyn Benjamin of Woodbury, Lillian Dwinell of East Calais, Iva Strachan of Sharon, Avis and Hazel Wheeler of Montpelier, Ethel Roberts of Northfield, Merle and Mary Plastridge of Northfield, Alice Waldo of Williamstown, Jessie Gates of Bradford, Irene Dwinell of East Calais, Avis Pettrell of Norwich, Beatrice Atherton of Waterbury. Miss Rachel Thatcher of Pomfret is the accompanist, Miss Christine Carrier of Cabot the violinist and Miss C. Evelyn Benjamin the reader. The glee club usually gives several entertainments during the winter, and the first one will probably be held at Franklin, late in October.

LIQUID VENEER

brightens and preserves everything about the home. There is no old or dingy looking furniture or woodwork in homes where Liquid Veneer is used—all is clean, wholesome, sanitary.

Liquid Veneer can be applied by anybody, anywhere, at any time, and there is no mess to clean up afterward. There are no cans, no pots, no brushes. There are no sticky hands or surfaces. Simply moisten a piece of cheese cloth and wipe off the surfaces, as you would do dusting. Just try Liquid Veneer and see how sweet and clean it will make everything.
